Black Box Corporation Announces Acquisition of Logos Communications Systems, Inc

Logos Communications Systems, Inc. (Logos) represents approximately $13 million in annual historical revenues

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA, October 25, 2010 -- Black Box Corporation (NASDAQ:BBOX - News) today announced the acquisition of Logos Communications Systems, Inc. (Logos), a privately-held company headquartered in Westlake, OH. Logos has an active customer base which includes commercial, education and various local government agency accounts. Logos is a silver certified Cisco partner with advanced specializations in unified communications, wireless LAN, routing & switching and security. Annual historical revenues of Logos are approximately $13 million. Christopher Tjotjos, former Logos President, commented, "The entire Logos team is very excited to not only be able to continue to offer our customers the highest level care at the local level, but now be able to assist them on a global level too. The synergies that are created by joining these two great companies will enhance our current offerings to all of our customers." Mr. Tjotjos will report to Steve Anderson, Regional General Manager. Commenting on the acquisition, Mr. Anderson stated, "I am excited to welcome the entire Logos team to Black Box. They have always focused on delighting their clients and have established a great reputation in the markets they serve. The addition of Logos to the Black Box family will greatly enhance our organic Cisco capabilities. They will be an excellent addition to our company."
